

Curriculum Vitae

Ad Personam

Name Germar Rudolf
Date & Place of Birth 10/29/1964; Limburg/Lahn (Hessen, Germany)
Marital Status remarried

1993

Education

School 1983: Elite School Diploma in Germany (cum laude)
1983-1989: Studying Chemistry at Bonn University: Diplom Degree (between Master and PhD) with summa cum laude
1989: Compulsory service in German army (Luftwaffe; Private 1st Class)
1990-1993: Scholarship at Max-Planck-Institute for Solid State research (Stuttgart, Germany), preparation of PhD thesis, completed in summer 1993, final examination denied for political reasons.
1994: College studies in Business Management

Professional Background

1994-1995: Field representative for anti-corrosion products
1995-1996: Research chemist on self-adhesive tapes
since 1996: Proprietor of publishing company in Britain 2000-2002: Manager of publishing company in the U.S.
since 2002: Proprietor of the same U.S. publishing company

1999

Management Background

1984-1992: Various leading positions in academic societies (treasurer, PR, CEO)
1995-1996: Liaison between management and research department of German tape company since 1996: Management of one, since 2000 two publishing firms, requiring coordination of international activities (mainly US, UK, Germany, Italy)

Scientific/Technical Background

1988-1989: Research in fuel cells/energy supply for European space shuttle
1990-1993: Research in solid state physics, crystallography
1991-1994: Forensic research on the "Holocaust" since 1996: Organizing and financing forensic/archival research/publications on controversial historical topics (WWII, Holocaust); human rights support for suppressed/persecuted scholars
since 1983: Experiences in programming (Basics, Fortran, Assembler, HTML, JavaScript, CGI, Perl)

2003